

In Agencia Marítima Kenrick del Perú S.A., we have specialized in providing our business partners with a set of integrated solutions to meet their needs and expectations. Becoming their main strategic ally as a general agent, logistics, commercial and support operator. Applying the good practices of international trade, based on a constant evaluation and search for excellence in the service experience. Providing safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of injuries and deterioration of the health of our collaborators, as well as always ensuring the care of the environment and the security and protection of information.

Our commitment is based on:

- Establishing the necessary measures to avoid and eliminate the factors that may negatively affect the Quality of the activities of Agencia Marítima Kenrick del Perú S.A., making this the key indicator for our continuous improvement.
- Ensuring and facilitating international trade, through the establishment and administration of global security standards and procedures, applied to the trade logistics chain, preventing illicit activities, corruption and bribery.
- Establishing procedures and practices to eliminate hazards and reduce the risks of our collaborators and stakeholders in our facilities and those of the business associate when applicable.
- Implementing and maintaining practices and procedures that allow us to prevent environmental pollution, promoting the protection of the environment within the development of our daily activities.
- Ensuring the consistency, storage and protection of the information of our business associates, committing ourselves to the use of first-rate computer and information security systems.
- Guaranteeing compliance with legal requirements and other signed agreements, sustainable development, social responsibility, competition, awareness, the well-being of our collaborators and interest groups, promoting participation, consultation, effectiveness and improvement of the System of Integrated Management.

The Senior Management (*) of Agencia Marítima Kenrick del Perú S.A. is aware that continuous improvement is everyone's effort; therefore, it is committed to communicate and disseminate this Integrated Management Policy to all levels of the organization, in order to engage all its employees. Likewise, the Policy will be public and will be available to interested parties.

In order to succeed in the Integrated Management Policy, the Senior Management requests the adherence and participation of all employees of Agencia Marítima Kenrick del Perú S.A., in order to establish, implement, maintain and improve our Integrated Management System.

Committed to our people, our customers, our environment and our occupational health and safety.

Valeria Bossio Szevezuck
General Manager

(*). Dependiendo del término que se use en la organización, puede ser Upper Management, Top Management or Leadership Committee.